

Chat record

GS: Greetings from Devon
KH: Good morning from the east coast of Scotland!
YP: Good morning! @Stewart Gray I live in Calvados too
YP: fascinating, just in 800m sq
SG: Good morning everyone from sunny Calvados, France :-)
Pv: Good morning everyone
Mv: Good morning from Sunny Nijmegen (NL), looking forward to another inspiring day!
JB: Thank you Graham. Inspiring presentation and learn more about you and your garden. :)
CD: Thank you! It's great to see a succesful garden of a comparable size to the one we're making.
HD: If you have any questions for Graham, please type them in the Q&A tab above. Looking forward to another inspiring day!
MH: Morning!
MH: earthworms are the VIPs
AA: Good morning all! :)
AA: Hugging carrots! :o
JF: Hi all from a sunny morning in Berkshire
JS: Good morning everybody.... looking very much forward to this second symposium day!!
JS: Marvellous and very encouraging!
JS: Thanks a lot for the great erathworms monitoring explanation... I will try that imediately!
PL: Good morning from Mid-Devon
GN: Hello all from Christchurch. England, more fascinating information today to look forward to SD: Hello everyone!
SF: Thank you Graham, that was inspiring and very enjoyable to listen to
AS: Thank you! That was amazing!
SH: Really love this presentation. So inspirational !
Pd: woody perennials are also good add avoiding contamination coming into their fruits
Pd: woody perennials are also good add avoiding contamination coming into their fruits, in general
KB: thank you for reminding us beautifully of our mission Graham!
AR: really very inspiring, thank you Graham
FP: good morning from sunny Kortrijk (Belgium)
PG: Hello everyone, the sun is shining here in Wilp, the Netherlands. Its a little bit double sitting indoors watching the green world evolve outdoors... It makes me itch
PG: worm wwofers... going to remember that term
AM: thank you as evere from the bottom of my heart.
DH: Another good moning from sunny summery Suffolk Uk
DH: Alley cropping too, agroforestry
AM: Good morning :)
KF: Morning everybody, from Czechia. Happy to be here. Enjoying presentation from one of! the legends in FG
JR: Morning all....beautiful day here in NE Scotland
JR: Great presentation, thanks Graham!

Chat record

JM: Greetingns from sunny, sandy Mook, Netherlands

JM: Wow, very inspiring!

Dv: Good morning!

CB: Many thanks Graham !

HK: Anybody from the south of france?

MC: Morning all. Suddenly feels like summer - a week ago it was end of winter!

MC: Morning all - another summery day here in Devon

LD: Great vision thank you so much

JB: Love your vision, Graham

KP: What a wonderful day yesterday - thank you all speakers ! Love from Sweden

KP: So wonderful ...really ..to listen to you Graham Bell! Love from Sweden

RA: Thanks Graham – especially love the points about people's mental wellbeing and spirituality, the need for community gardens, and the need to resist the idea that making a profit should be the measure of everything.

RA: http://darwin-online.org.uk/EditorialIntroductions/Chancellor_Earthworms.html

RA: <https://www.earthwormsoc.org.uk/>

DL: Hi Everyone from Switzerland

DL: How do use succession in your system?

SB: Thanks !

CM: wonderful Graham, thank you!

SI: Hii... Wonderful presentation so inspirational and learning..

HG: The morning started very good, watering 4000 Chestnut trees with my woofers :-). Now we are happy to hear some news from Graham :-)

GH: G'day everyone from Brisbane, Australia

JU: Good morning from Finland!

BM: Inspiring symposium, thanks to all the speakers yesterday, from sunny Tuscany

Fd: Good morning everyone from a sunny foodforest orchard in Weurt, the Netherlands

JM: Good morning everyone...

TC: Good morning from a soul brighteningly sunny Birmingham. Looking forward to an inspiring day!

LV: Lovely presentation!

JK: great presentation. Thank you

MT: Thank you mr. Bell for your great inspirational presentation.

JK: Great advocation for forest gardening. Do you share your 30 year monitoring results?